Cookie Policy

AlltoBill, like most of big websites, uses cookies. A cookie is a small data file that a website saves on your computer or mobile device while you visit the site. It enables the website to remember your actions and preferences over a period your time, so you do not have to keep re-entering them whenever you come back to our Website.

Using cookies help us provide you with a good experience when you visit our Website and also allow us to improve our service. Cookies let us use personal ads, analyze our traffic and also make the site more tailored for you.

Cookies do not contain any information that personally identifies you, but personal information that we store about you may be linked to the information stored in and obtained from cookies.

By using our site, you agree to our use of cookies.

You can control and/or delete all cookies that are already on your computer and you can set most browsers to prevent them from being placed. If you do this, our website may not function properly and/or some features of this site may not work as intended.
