1. General information

- 1.1. These General Terms and Conditions (hereinafter: GTC) regulate the rights and obligations in connection with the use of the services of the provider, AlltoBill GmbH (hereinafter: AlltoBill) and the AlltoBill Customer in connection with the use of the AlltoBill services and the other services, applications, mobile applications and functions offered by AlltoBill, unless AlltoBill expressly stipulates otherwise.
- 1.2. The GTC of AlltoBill apply exclusively. Conflicting or deviating terms and conditions of the AlltoBill customer will not be recognised unless AlltoBill has expressly agreed to their validity in writing. These GTC shall also apply if AlltoBill unconditionally provides services to AlltoBill customers in the knowledge of conflicting or deviating terms and conditions of AlltoBill customers of AlltoBill.
- 1.3. Furthermore, AlltoBill may, with the consent of the AlltoBill customer, change the content of the existing contract, as well as these terms and conditions. Consent to the change shall be deemed granted if the customer does not object to the change within one month of receipt of the notification of change. AlltoBill undertakes to draw the customer's attention to the consequences of an omitted objection when notifying the change.
- 1.4. The German version of these conditions is authoritative.

2. Offer and Conclusion of Contract

- 2.1. Unless otherwise agreed, AlltoBill remains bound to the offer for 30 days. Offers made by AlltoBill based on inaccurate or information which is not yet available shall be considered as willingness, in principle, to conclude a contract but not as a binding offer. Price details contained therein are non-binding target prices.
- 2.2. The contract between AlltoBill and the AlltoBill customer comes into effect when the signed offer is returned. In the case of small orders for which no written offer is made, the contract is concluded when the AlltoBill customer places the order.
- 2.3. The minimum term of the contracts corresponds to the selected contract duration. At the end of this minimum contract term, the contract shall be extended for the same term in each case, unless a written cancellation by one of the parties has been received at least 30 days prior to the end of the contract term.

- 2.4. The offers of AlltoBill are to be understood as guide price offers. The indication of the number of time units is based on an assumption. The work is carried out on a time and material basis. Invoicing is based on actual expenditure, which can lead to a deviation of +/- 10% from the guide price.

3. Services of AlltoBill

- 3.1. AlltoBill offers not only the payment platform (hereinafter: Platform) but also individual software developments on an offer basis, professional services and white label solutions.

4. Terms of payment

- 4.1. Invoices for chargeable services are provided to the customer in PDF format.
- 4.2. The respective invoice amount must be paid in full to AlltoBill within 30 days of receipt of the invoice, unless otherwise agreed.
- 4.3. The timeliness of payments depends on the receipt of the amount into AlltoBill's unconditional control.
- 4.4. In the case of payment by bank transfer, the intended use specified by AlltoBill must be stated. If the customer transfers funds for another purpose, they must inform AlltoBill immediately and provide AlltoBill with proof of payment. The following data must be complete and decipherable on this proof: The bank details (IBAN) of the sender account, the name of the account holder, the payment date, the amount, the purpose and the bank details (IBAN) of the recipient. The burden of proof of a payment lies with the customer.
- 4.5. AlltoBill is also entitled to cease providing the services if the fees are not paid.
- 4.6. AlltoBill assumes no liability for failures, damages or losses of turnover caused by the suspension of services due to incorrect or late payment, provided that the error or delay is the fault of the customer.
- 4.7. Payments are made in the respective national currency, either CHF or EUR.
- 4.8. Unless otherwise stated, discounts or promotions refer to the first contract period of a contract term. The contract is then extended at the current, valid full price. AlltoBill may occasionally change its offer and prices. In the case of existing contracts with costs, the changes will take effect at the beginning of the next contract period and an appropriate notification period of at least six weeks will be observed. If the customer does not object within six weeks after receipt of the notification and the use of the services continues even after expiry of the objection period, the changes shall be deemed to be validly agreed on after the expiry period. The customer is informed in the notification of change of their right of objection and of the consequences of an objection.

- 4.9. All prices include VAT. The applicable VAT rate is shown on the invoice at the latest. The customer will receive a net invoice if the customer or the associated company is not domiciled in Switzerland.

5. Right of revocation

- 5.1. Customers are generally entitled to a right of revocation. Further information can be found in the cancellation policy.
- 5.2. If a contract is revoked, AlltoBill will repay the payment received within the scope of this contract immediately and, at the latest, within fourteen days after receipt of the revocation. AlltoBill uses the same means of payment for this repayment as the customer used for the original transaction.

6. Data protection

- 6.1. AlltoBill ensures that personal data of customers is only collected, stored and processed if this is necessary for the provision of services and permitted by legal regulations or moreover is ordered by law.
- 6.2. In the event that the customer's declarations of consent, under data protection law, are obtained within the framework of the use of the services, it is pointed out that these can be revoked by the customer at any time with future effect.
- 6.3. As far as a processing of data exists in the order, customers can ask for the conclusion of an order data processing contract.
- 6.4. In this context, AlltoBill may also change details of the processing of data via its Internet sites. Current information on the purpose, type and extent of the collection, processing and use of personal data can be found in the data protection information, which can be accessed at any time under the link "Data protection". You will also find information there about the cookies and services used by AlltoBill.

7. Limitation of liability

- 7.1. AlltoBill is liable without limitation for all damages caused by AlltoBill in the event of intentional or gross negligence.
- 7.2. In case of slight negligence, AlltoBill is liable without limitation in case of injury to life, body or health.
- 7.3. Otherwise, AlltoBill is only liable if AlltoBill has violated an essential contractual obligation. Essential contractual obligations are defined abstractly as those obligations whose fulfilment is essential for the proper performance of the contract and on whose compliance the customer may regularly rely. In these cases, the liability is limited to the compensation of the foreseeable, typically occurring damage but to no more than the amount of the fees already paid.
- 7.4. Insofar as AlltoBill's liability is excluded or limited according to the aforementioned regulations, this also applies to AlltoBill's vicarious agents.
- 7.5. Liability under the Product Liability Act remains unaffected.

8. Final clauses

- 8.1. As far as is legally permissible, the law of the Swiss Confederation shall apply, whereby the application of the UN Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods is excluded.
- 8.2. If the customer is a legal entity under public law or a special fund under public law, our registered office is the exclusive place of jurisdiction for all disputes arising from the contractual relationship.
- 8.3. Should individual provisions of these GTC be or become invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions.
